DP, KS, CM, MM Near Perfect

Each Go 12-1 in Week Seven

Effective date: 2012-10-23

JD was just asking about recent Perfect Performances and SHAZAM the group has nearly four such performances this week (see message board for interesting factlets). Everybody did well this week evidenced by the fact that the 12 game winners picked up only one game in the standings.

MS and JP have the best records (30 wins) over the last three weeks but still find if hard to break through. The McDonald father-son team (MM & CM) sets a record with the fewest losses in a week ---only two between them this week!

Closing in on the half-way mark and I need dues from Kyle, Tim, Mark and Chris. Don't jepordize your future picking rights.

Game Thursday.
