KS Picks Up A Game - Race Tightens

Only A Few Contenders After Week 9

Effective date: 2012-11-06

The Presidential race ends today but the PFVCC race is still going strong with eight weeks left. TB continues to lead the group by four games over DP and KS. KS the cagey veteran with his 11 wins picks up a game this week and seems to be lurking in the background and could be planning his big move.

DP in his rookie year seems to be immune from the pressure and just keeps picking winners.

There were many impressive results with KS,CM,MS,DR,LF,JP,MM and BS all with 11 wins.

Thursday game. Remember to VOTE.....
