

BS WINS THE BATTLE OF THE GOO

TB Has His Season Best 13 Wins - Week Leader

Effective date: 2013-11-18

TB has his best week of the year with 13 wins but still trails BS by nine games. TB has a membership leading 26 wins over the past three weeks but still has a mighty hill to climb. BS stays the course with a very respectable 11 wins and puts some space between him and second place. The GOO table was active as BS pushed some contenders back in the standings while KS (11 wins) stayed even and eight-time champ SS picked up a game. SS tied his season high with 12 wins this week and moved from sixth position to second position. SS joins JP and KS in second place each out by four games. JP lost two games in the standing however DR and CM lost three games in the standings.

BD's 11 wins moves her up a position in the standings. MM picks 10 winners and has a very impressive 34 wins over the last four weeks. Other noteworthy performances include SR with 10 wins, while JD, DP and MS pick nine winners.

Big Snout congratulations to DR who picked his 4,100 winning pick and SR picked number 4,000.

Week 12 looks interesting and reminds us there are six weeks remaining until a new champ for 2013 is determined.
