

BS Keeps Swatting Back Challengers

KB Week 11 Winner – Picks STL!

Effective date: 2014-11-20

BS with his nine wins fends off all comers to keep his precarious one-game lead. BS, CM, JD, LF, and KS, the top five in the standings at the start of week 11 finished the week in the top five but they were shuffled and KS came out of the heap losing ground. KS started the week out by 1 game and finished the week at 7-7 losing two games to BS and now finds himself out by three games. The good news is KS finds himself only one game out from the coveted Commemorative Pen and Pencil Set position.

JD winning the Florida battle stays in the middle of the battle while the kids CM and LF, all prior champions try to keep the pressure on BS. KB has the week's best results with a 10 spot, most notably his unbelievable Loner Pick of STL over DEN. Speaking of Loners, JR notched one with TB over WAS. Nice Pick'en guys.

Moving into Week 12, let's see how the followers will challenge the defending champ.

Happy Picking
