

CM Takes First Place from BS

CM Wins 3 out of 4 GOO's

Effective date: 2014-12-08

In back to back weeks with four game Goo's with first place holder BS, CM breaks the spell and wins 3 of 4 GOO games to take sole possession of first place. CM, a favorite past champion, has been out by as many as six games during the year but his steady persistent drive to first pays off in week 14. Now that CM is in the penthouse does he have enough rent money to keep occupancy?

Hats off to JP and MS who picked 14 winners. Another tip of the cap to MM, another favorite past champion, who attempted three loner picks punctuating his never say die attitude. Sadly, MM went 1-2 in those picks (CAR over NO winner) and still managed nine wins for the week.

With three weeks left we have a horse race. There are five members with a legitimate chance to win this year's championship. JP with his 14 wins picked up 3 spots and has an outside shot out by 5 games with three weeks left. The rest of us will sit back and enjoy the final three weeks.
