

SS Remains on Top After a Strong Showing in a Tough Week

It was a Rough Week for Membership; Two Loner Picks for NF!

Effective date: 2015-09-21

While the MIP is still many weeks away, Membership was hit with a MIP-like weekend that was fueled by upsets and injuries. Our top performers this week were LF, MM, and SS, who were able to pull in 8 wins when membership averaged just under 7. JR has found himself tied for first with SS. BD continues to rise in the ranks as she settles into a tie for second place with BC, KB, and TB.

We had a couple of notable performances this week. We had three attempted Loner Picks this week, and three successes. MM was successful in picking the shocking upset of the Redskins over the Rams. As impressive as that is, NF wasn't satisfied with just one Loner Pick, so he decided to make two. NF picked the Raiders over the Jags, and had a very impressive pick of the Jets over the Colts. The only other people in America that chose the Jets live on Long Island, and they pick the Jets every week. Well played NF; keep up the good work!

I know that this member is ready to put Week 2 behind him and get Week 3 here already!

Happy Picking

JP