DP Picks Up a Crucial Game Heading into Final Week

An Exciting Finish is in Store for PFVCC’s Historic 35th Season!

Effective date: 2015-12-30

DP picked up a very necessary win on SS, BD and BS heading into the final week of the season. SS is one game back, BD is two games back, and BS clings to hope at four games back. Our top three have been picking very conservatively and consistently all season, so it will be exciting to see what happens in this final week! DP has to be feeling the pressure, with a seasoned veteran like SS only inches behind him. As stated in the byline; no matter what, it’s going to be a photo-finish this year!

In other news, KS gets a special shout out for his Loner Pick of the Colts over the Dolphins. Well picked, sir! A special reminder: Group Picks will not be available prior to the games this weekend. All games are on Sunday, so the winner will be announced at the end of the final regular season game of the season on Sunday night. Stay tuned!

Happy New Year!

Happy Picking.
